CONFERENCE OVERVIEW

Welcome to the 8th Annual Champions of Children Conference!

Thank you for joining us this year and thank you for choosing this Conference for your professional training experience. We hope you enjoy your two-day experience and take advantage of this year's outstanding learning and networking opportunities!

Monday morning begins with our Keynote Speaker, Kevin Mulcahy. During the Conference there will be an additional 20 workshops. The schedule is broken down by date and time in this program. As in the past, Vendors/Exhibitors will be set up on the second floor. Should you need anything, the CACI staff will be at the check-in table located in the entryway on the first floor.

Frequently Asked Questions

Do I have to wear my name badge?

Yes. The wonderful people at the McDonald's Campus want to keep you and everyone else safe and they do that by keeping track of who is in the building.

I forgot the sessions I signed up for!

No worries, we have you covered! Look at the back of your name badge, your sessions can be found there.

How do I access handouts?

All handouts, given to CACI, will be uploaded to our website and can be found here:
<http://www.childrensadvocacycentersofillinois.org/2017-champions-of-children-conferen>

Continuing Education Credits, are they offered?

Yes! The Champions of Children Conference is an approved provider of Continuing Education credits. Please be sure to sign in at EACH session you attend. If you do not sign in, we cannot confirm that you attended the conference, and credit may not be granted.

How do I submit Conference and Session feedback?

We love hearing back from you after the Conference. Your comments, concerns and suggestions are what make us better! An evaluation can be found in the items you receive at registration. A marked box will be at the registration table for you to drop yours in before you leave.

CACI is providing you an opportunity to get a

KEYNOTE PRESENTATION (9:00 - 10:30 AM)

KEVIN MULCAHY - "Randy & Me"

Randy & Me recounts Kevin's own story of sexual exploitation at the hands of his soccer coach, Randy. But, it will not be merely a retelling of the past. Instead, the presentation will address lessons learned from his case by combining Kevin's experience both as a victim and a long-time prosecutor of child exploitation cases. Knowing what he knows now, Kevin believes there are lessons to be learned from his story for the investigator (Kevin's was great), the prosecutor (Kevin's was terrible), and the forensic interviewer (Kevin did not have one). Beyond these (hopefully) useful lessons, the presentation will provide plenty of time for questions from attendees. Given the nature of our work, we don't often get to ask questions (beyond factual questions) of our child victims.

SESSION 2 (10:45 AM- 12:15 PM)

A) JEFF RICH - "Interviews and Interrogations for MDT members"

This course of instruction will cover the basics of Interviews and a historical perspective on methods used and how these methods are changing over time as well as time tested techniques used in Child Exploitation investigations. The course is intended for members of an MDT and will cover in-depth interviews (with examples) as well.

B) JOAN PERNECKE - "How the Work of CAC's Impact the Prosecution of Child Abuse and Neglect Cases"

After an investigation is complete, prosecutors determine if criminal charges against an adult offender will be filed, if a Delinquency Petition against a minor offender will be filed and if a Child Protection (Abuse and Neglect) Civil Petition will be filed. Evidence can include medical examinations and statements to medical providers, statements of victims, witnesses and offenders, photographs and scene investigations. Evidence gathered can include prior investigations and their result, as well as prior statements. With a coordinated MDT approach, a better investigation will result. The benefit to the prosecutor is that there is often just one source of investigational material, and an Advocacy Center that has created a relationship of trust with the child victim and their non-offending caretakers. I will discuss the benefits & the difficulties that often accompany an investigation that is not handled through the CAC.

C) JEFFREY WHERRY - "NCA Standards for Family Advocacy: The Family Advocate Role as One Remedy/Response to Engagement"

NCA Accreditation Standards for Family Advocates require training in: (a) dynamics of abuse (b) trauma-informed services (c) crisis assessment and intervention (d) risk assessment and safety planning. This workshop will focus on using knowledge in the aforementioned areas to strengthen engagement, and to support children by supporting their non-offending parents.

SESSION 3 (1:15 – 2:45 PM)

A) JEFF RICH - *"Technology Facilitated Child Abuse Investigations"

During this course of instruction students will be exposed to methods and techniques offenders are using to facilitate the exploitation of children as well as methods used by Law Enforcement and Social Services to utilize these same exploits as evidence against the offender. This course will cover an overview of technology but is suited for the technologically challenged as well.

B) ALE LEVI - *"Identifying, Notification, and Interviewing All In One"

More and more common is the case where your suspect/target is enticing minors to self-produce pictures of themselves, producing images/videos of them without their knowledge, using sextortion methods or baiting them in with a false identity. We will discuss new investigative techniques regarding how to locate victims while minimizing impact on the victim and family; how and when to identify the victims of child exploitation; and how to notify the families of the child exploitation through the use of the forensic interview process. These techniques are helpful with cases ranging from one victim to those with multi-victims spanning the globe. Discussions of protocols and venues for these options will be presented using case examples as well as presenters experience.

C) JEFFREY WHERRY - *"Prepare for the New NCA Standards on Mental Health Assessment: Best Practices in Training"

New NCA Accreditation Standards for Mental Health require: a) trauma-specific assessment of traumatic events and abuse-related trauma symptoms b) use of standardized assessment measures initially to inform treatment, and to assess progress/outcome and c) individualized treatment planning based on assessments that are re-assessed. Currently, these services are seldom provided, and few staff/community providers are familiar or proficient with standardized measures. An assessment model will be presented that includes existing and promising measures, examples of using information to prioritize treatment needs/match with evidence-based treatments, and how to periodically re-assess. Lessons learned from training models in Texas and Mississippi will be discussed.

D) CLAUDIA KASTEN & EVAN OWENS - *"Illinois Prosecutor Panel and Round Table"

This panel will focus on the important role of the prosecutor on the MDT and discuss timely topics for child abuse investigations. Be prepared to meet your colleagues and brainstorm ideas as attendees have the opportunity to address your questions. Learn about challenges your colleagues face and how they overcome those issues. FOR PROSECUTORS ONLY

SESSION 4 (3:00 – 4:30 PM)

A) JEFF RICH - *"Preparing the MDT to Respond to Child Sex Trafficking Cases"

This course of instruction will provide information on how an MDT can identify current and prospective members of the MDT for CST cases as well as describing the best practices teams will need to take to ensure success.

B) DR. VEENA RAMAIAH - *"What All Investigators Should Ask on the Scene for Proper Medical Evaluations: Burns, Fractures, and Head Injury"

This presentation will focus on the core components of the history and scene investigation in physical abuse investigations. The information obtained by investigators is often crucial for assisting the medical provider in determining mechanism or manner of injury. The focus will be on the 4 main areas of injury seen in physical abuse: Head Trauma, Fractures, Burns, and Bruises. Checklists for each injury or diagnosis will be presented that may help guide the investigator as you initiate or proceed through an investigation.

C) JEFFREY WHERRY - *"Evidence-Based Treatments for Use in A CAC Setting: Introduction and Overview"

NCA Accreditation Standards for Family Advocates require training in: (a) dynamics of abuse (b) trauma-informed services (c) crisis assessment and intervention (d) risk assessment and safety planning. This workshop will focus on using knowledge in the aforementioned areas to strengthen engagement and to support children by supporting their non-offending parents.

KEYNOTE PRESENTATION (9:00 - 10:30 AM)

DAN POWERS - *"It's Not Easy Being Green or Doing THIS for a Living.....Wellness/Survival and the MDT Approach to Child Abuse"

This motivational talk is meant to provide you with the insight & knowledge to help survive in a job no one else really understands. Others "outside the business" don't want to hear about this stuff! You can clear a restaurant with a discussion of what you did that day. We see & hear things on a daily basis our mom & dad never told you existed in this world. Participants will learn how dynamic determination & working, as a member of THE TEAM, will help you survive in "our world". Based on the wisdom of Kermit the Frog, participants will be encouraged to look at themselves, why they do "this" for a living & most of all learn to laugh at it all.

SESSION 2 (10:45 AM- 12:15 PM)

A) DAN POWERS - *"Juvenile Sex Offenders and Reunification, a Challenge for the Team"

Juvenile sex offenders pose an interesting challenge to the MDT. This workshop is intended for interviewers, police officers, CPS workers, medical personnel, family court workers, attorneys, judges, social workers, therapists & anyone else dealing with juvenile sex offenders. We will explore the dynamics & challenges juvenile sex offenders bring to your caseload. We will review types of juvenile sex offenders and will suggest a consistent approach in dealing with them from investigation through on-going treatment. It will emphasize the MDT approach as solution to solving the unique problems these cases bring to the system.

B) KEVIN McNEIL - *"Investigating Child Sex Crimes and Why Your Involvement Matters"

This workshop is for multi-disciplinary teams. It is designed to show why every investigation should be done as a team and not just by a lone investigator. It will also highlight evidence some investigators do not consider.

C) KAREN HANGARTNER - *"Individual Strategies to Address Work Related Trauma Exposure"

This workshop will explore strategies that individuals can use to mitigate the negative effects of working with children and families who have experienced trauma. Working with children and families who have experienced trauma can have a profound impact on professionals. In this workshop participants will discuss concepts of vicarious trauma, secondary traumatic stress and compassion fatigue. We will explore specific strategies professionals can use to promote resilience.

SESSION 3 (1:15 – 2:45 PM)

A) DAN POWERS - *"Leadership on the MDT"

Do you want to be known as the Yoda or Darth to your staff? Would you like to convey wisdom or deliver fear as part of your leadership style? You cannot deny that Darth Vader's leadership style gets results, but force choking may not be the best way to lead your team. As leaders in "our world" we are faced with the challenge of needing to influence many different types of people. The team looks to you to lead with knowledge, compassion and empathy. You have a choice, use the force or go to the dark side.

B) CARLA STALNAKER & ERICKA SANDERS - *"Juvenile Pre-Trial Assessments: Effective Sentencing Based Upon the Needs of the Child"

Ever wonder what role childhood trauma plays in juvenile delinquency? Are you curious how the juvenile justice system sentences are determined? The Clinton County juvenile justice system team has developed a new and innovative way to answer both questions. In 2015, the Clinton County Juvenile Court implemented an innovative pre-trial protocol to better identify childhood trauma in our youth and to utilize this information in sentencing. The pre-trial protocol, by utilizing the ACE (Adverse Childhood Experiences) Questionnaire and the YASI (Youth Assessment & Screening Instrument), is one of the first of its kind. The pre-trial assessments have shown to be beneficial in providing evidence based sentencing, deterring inappropriate incarceration, and identifying a youth's risks and needs to provide more effective supervision planning. This presentation will address the legal, professional, and personal issues in developing and implementing such a protocol. It will discuss the day-to day implementation of the pre-trial assessments and the benefits the youth and system have seen as a result.

C) KAREN HANGARTNER - *"MDT Strategies to Address Work Related Trauma Exposure"

This workshop will look at concrete strategies multidisciplinary teams and supervisors can employ to mitigate the negative effects of working with children and families who have experienced trauma. Working with children and families who have experienced trauma can have a profound impact on professionals. Often, there is the expectation that individuals are solely responsible for their own self-care. In reality, there is a responsibility on the part of the organization to develop policies and procedures to educate, promote and support employees in order to mitigate the negative effects of trauma exposure. In this workshop, we will look at research around vicarious trauma, secondary traumatic stress and compassion fatigue from an organizational perspective. We will explore creative, concrete solutions that MDTs may use to create healthy environments, which will promote resilience among team members.

SESSION 4 (3:00 – 4:30 PM)

A) DAN POWERS - *"Working With Non-Offending Caregivers in Sexual Abuse Cases"

This workshop is intended for interviewers, police officers, CPS workers, probation officers, attorneys, judges, social workers, therapists and anyone else dealing with abused children and their non-offending parents. It will review types of non-offending parents and suggest a consistent approach in dealing with them from investigation through on-going treatment. Your actions can "make or break it" for the next professional dealing with the parent. We will discuss the range of emotions professionals may feel as well as the "do's and don'ts" of dealing with non-offending parents, emphasizing the need for a collaborative, consistent approach when dealing with them.

B) KEVIN McNEIL - *"Collecting Evidence in Child Abuse Investigations: Going Beyond the Allegation"

Over the past decade reports of child abuse & child sex crimes have increased dramatically. Due to the nature of the crime & the fact some victim's delay in reporting, proving these cases can be challenging. In most cases there are no objective witnesses to the crime; only the victim. Often times this only leaves the investigator & child service providers with only the statement of the child victim. In this workshop Det. McNeil gives helpful information & tips on how to collect evidence beyond the original victim statement. He will discuss how to build a case around the allegation & search for other things to support the allegation. Detective McNeil will also discuss why it is important to gather information outside of the child victim's home. The purpose of this workshop is to help investigator and child service providers build stronger cases that involve only allegations.

C) KAREN HANGARTNER - *"Research to Practice: Hot Topics for Multidisciplinary Teams"

This research to practice workshop will explore recent research that affects child abuse investigations. Child abuse professionals on MDTs need working knowledge of research findings related to child abuse and possible effects on investigations. This specific information is seldom, if ever, included in their discipline-specific professional training. There are several topics that directly impact decisions made during the course of an investigation and may affect recommendations for interventions. In this workshop, we explore several "hot" topics and related research and implications for professionals' practice.
